Now let us see whether America can originate her own styles. Paris has lost its grip, and the fashionable women of the United States will have to take a chance on American tailors since all the great dressmaking establishments of Paris are closed. There will be no fall creations from Paris, and therefore the modistes of Pawtucket, Kokomo, Kalamazoo, Oskosh, Laramie, and Snohomish will come into their own.

OBITUARY.

He still prepared for death and death or life shall thereby be the sweeter.—Shakespeare.

Mrs. Margaret Smith, mother of Alvah Smith, who underwent an operation on a week ago last Sunday, expired at the home of her son, south of Melvin Sunday evening. The operation was performed only in hopes of saving her life as it was of a very critical nature, but after a week's battle for life she was finally compelled to give up when nature's labor ceased. She was born in Port Hope, Canada, in 1841, and lived there until her marriage to Harrison Smith and they moved to Michigan and settled in St. Clair county, near Old Brookway where she resided until six years ago when she went to Port Huron to reside with her son. Two children survive, a son, Alvah and a daughter, Mrs. Nellie F. Davidson of Port Huron. The funeral was held from the temporary home south of Melvin Wednesday morning, Rev. Osborne, officiating, and burial in Yale cemetery, beside the body of her husband who died some twenty years ago.—Sanilac County Times.

Henry H. Jordan, lieutenant detective of the Saginaw police department, died Sunday afternoon shortly after 2:30 o'clock at his home in that city. Lieut. Jordan had been in bad health for months past, but after a term in hospital and an operation he had resumed duty and to outward appearance looked as though returning to his usual health. A few weeks ago it was found that he had cancer of the intestines, and although everything was done to relieve him, he was taken by death.

Lieut. Jordan was born in Greenwood township, St. Clair county, Mar. 9, 1863, and went to Saginaw when a young man. He was married in that city to Cynthia Clark, Sept. 3, 1884, who survives him with five children, Grace, Julius, Clark, Floyd and Leslie. In addition there are surviving one brother and six sisters, being George Jordan Mrs. James Clark, Yale; Mrs. Sarah Russell, Detroit; Mrs. Wm. Smith, Port Huron; Mrs. A. E. Jackson, Capac; Mrs. Chas. Elberts, Saginaw; Mrs. Levi Soules, Standish.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at 9:00 o'clock at St. Mary's church, Saginaw, and were largely attended. The police departments of Saginaw and Bay City turning out 35 and 25 strong. Burial took place at Mt. Olivet.

Mart Ryan of Port Huron is Yale today.

E. R. Card has been at Toledo for the past week.

Ed. Michaels and family of Imlay City are in Yale today.

David Williams is at Peck on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Harry Waterman.

Art VanNorman, a former resident of Old Brookway, was in Yale Wednesday.

Mr. Goodyear and little daughter of Chicago are visiting W. A. Woodruff and wife.

Editor Graham of the Peck Times was a welcome caller at the Expositor office Monday.

George Jordan and daughter Martha attended the funeral of Henry Jordan at Saginaw Wednesday.

Marion Learmont is entertaining a few of her young friends at her home today, it being her ninth birthday.

Miss McKay of Toronto and Miss McKay of Detroit visited at the home of Mrs. J. C. Hart part of last week.

Leona Middleton returned home Monday evening from Detroit where she had been visiting relatives a week or more.

Carrie and Rada Rapley left the first of the week for Lexington, Mo. They will spend a few weeks in a cottage on Lake Huron.

Fred Taylor is building a cement curb along the front of his Mechanic street property. Jas. Blackford is doing the work.

All services will be held as usual at the M. E. churches in Yale and Brookway next Sunday. Everybody cordially invited.

James McColl is driving a new Buick "six" purchased of the Yale Buick Co. by the Middleton family. The "six" was bought from this same company.

Low Broadway, wife and two children of Brown City, T. A. Terpening and Geo. Glasure of Goodland spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Seneca Valentine.

Wm. McDonald, real estate dealer of Port Huron and Robt. McKenzie, candidate on the Republican ticket for register of deeds St. Clair county were in Yale Saturday.

Robert Carless, living four miles north-east of Yale, had the misfortune to lose his barn and contents by fire today. We did not learn what was the cause of the fire.

The barn, 40x80, on the farm owned by Lew and Frank Smith, a mile north and three and a half miles east of Yale, was burned to the ground early Sunday morning, together with its contents consisting of thirty acres of hay and thirty acres of oats. A year ago this barn was overhauled and remodelled, a new hip roof put on and was practically a new barn. The loss is quite heavy on the Messrs. Smith as only $500 insurance was carried on the barn and none on the contents. Cause of the fire is unknown.

The automobile license plates for Michigan next year will be the "classiest" yet decided upon according to the attaches of the secretary of state's office where Secretary Martindale recently made the selection for 1915. The plate is embossed this time instead of printed. It will be a dark blue back ground and white letters. In the upper left hand corner where the seal of the state is now printed, the plate will sport the same embossed in aluminum. The new combination was selected from some 20 or 30 samples submitted by manufacturers in different parts of the country. The order for the first lot will go forward in a few days, the specials to begin to arrive in November.

A CONFIRMED STATEMENT

EVIDENCE YALE READERS WILL APPRECIATE.

Doan's Kidney Pills have done splendid work in this locality.

Have merited the unstinted praise they have received.

Here's evidence of their value that none can doubt.

It's testimony from this locality twice-told and well confirmed.

Such endorsements are unique in the annals of medicine.

Should convince the most skeptical Yale reader.

Leater Clark, Mary St., Yale, Mich., says: "You may continue using the statement I gave recommending Doan's Kidney Pills before. They made a permanent cure in my case. I gave this remedy a thorough trial, getting it at Grant Holden's Drug Store. It lived up to representations, making me feel like a different person. After I used Doan's Kidney Pills my kidneys were in better condition than they had been for years."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Clark had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
